

Protecting Families

Helping Seniors

Assisting Consumers

Serving Victims

About The Office

Media Center

News Archive

Columns

Photo Gallery

Press Photo

Morrison announces charges against Pittsburg police major

May 7, 2007 -- Attorney General Paul Morrison announced today that Major Terry E. Davis of the Pittsburg Police Department was charged with two counts of Official Misconduct for using confidential information gained in the course of his office for his own gain or the gain of another. Each count is a Class A Person Misdemeanor.

The possible penalties on a Class A are up to a year in jail on each charge and a fine of up to $2,500 on each charge. If convicted of Official Misconduct, the officer or employee must forfeit their office or employment.

First appearance has been scheduled for June 14, 2007. All press inquiries should be directed the Attorney General's Office.

