ORDER

The motion filed by the plaintiff, a woman using the name "Jane Stone," (1) to approve her use of this pseudonym in the complaint and throughout this litigation and (2) for a protective order precluding those involved in this litigation from disclosing her identity, is granted.

This Court approves the plaintiff's use of the name "Jane Stone" in the style and body of the complaint. All parties, attorneys, experts, the court staff, the clerk and her staff, all witnesses and non-parties, and any and all affiliates and contractors of the same, (1) are required to use the name "Jane Stone" when referring to the plaintiff in this action and (2) are prohibited from disclosing her name to anyone -- whether in the public record or outside the public record -- throughout the entirety of this litigation and afterwards.
